An Examiner's Amendment to the record appears below. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to applicant, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR 1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee.

Authorization for this Examiner's Amendment was given in a telephone interview with Ms. Michele M. Simkin, on 9/23/2004.

Examiner's Amendment to the Claims

In claim 41, delete lines 2-3 and substitute therefor --- of the peptide encoded by the nucleic acid of claim 42. ---.

In claim 43, line 1, delete " a nucleic acid " and substitute therefor --- An isolated nucleic acid whose sequence corresponds to an RNA ---.

In claim 43, line 1, after "hybridizing" insert --- under conditions of Northern hybridization or in situ hybridization at 65 °C ---.

Add the following claim:

--- Claim 53. The nucleic acid of claim 43, wherein the capability of hybridizing is confined to the region corresponding to nucleotide position 980 to 1480 of SEQ ID NO:1. ---.

Examiner's Amendments to the Specification

In page 1, underneath the title, insert --- This application is a Divisional of Application No. 09/031,295, filed 2/26/1998 now U.S. patent No. 6,236,181 issued 12/04/2001. ---.

The following is an Examiner's Statement of Reasons for Allowance:

Claims 39-53 are directed to isolated nucleic acids encoding a volume-regulated kinase (h-sgk) of specific amino acid composition and specifically claimed fragments thereof, as well as compositions comprising all said products. Claimed DNA sequences and fragments thereof are free of prior art. Further the prior art does not teach or suggest preparing such specifically claimed products. Hence, all said products are free of prior art. Since claimed products are both novel and non-obvious, compositions comprising said products are also novel and non-obvious.

Claims 39-53 are allowed.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
